

PLEASE don't change Wisconsin's no-call program. It's one of the few government programs that provides a clear, tangible benefit. If you want a good changed, you should provide a list of name's and phone number's of those advocating this current revision to the law so we can frequently and repeatedly call them during their dinner hours to express our dislike of changes to this law. Like rabbits, loopholes tend to breed rapidly